Indian Arts Museum

Located in the Colter Bay Visitor Center, the Indian Arts Museum houses the David T. Vernon Collection, a spectacular assemblage of Native American artifacts. Native American art has spiritual significance in addition to beauty and function. The artifacts in the museum are vivid examples of the diverse art forms of Native Americans. From June to September, interpretive activities such as craft demonstrations by tribal members and ranger-led museum tours enhance appreciation of Native American culture.

Menor’s Ferry Historic District

Located just north of the Moose Visitor Center. Includes a self-guiding path and the historic Menor Store, which is open daily 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. from May 22 through September 26. The ferry operates when water levels and staffing allow. Inquire at the Moose Visitor Center.

Artists in the Environment

Jackson Hole attracts artists from all over the world. This summer you can observe professional artists demonstrating their techniques and capturing the essence of Grand Teton National Park. Check at visitor centers for demonstration times and locations. Sponsored by Grand Teton Natural History Association. Program dates: June 12, July 10, August 14, September 11.

New in 2004!

Writers in the Environment

Local writers will share their talents by offering writing exercises for park visitors in various areas of the park. All workshop leaders are inspiring writers and teachers who draw on the natural and cultural values of the park in their published works. Check at visitor centers for times and locations. Sponsored by Grand Teton Natural History Association. Program dates: June 12, July 10, August 14, September 11.

Talks & Evening Programs

See page A for visitor center information and a list of walks and talks offered throughout the park. Additional ranger activities will be offered during the summer. Check at a visitor center for special hikes and programs not listed here.
